

Practice, Evidence, and Research: Public Health Physicians' Perspectives

Sunday, May 24, 2015 · Hyatt Regency Vancouver · 9:00am – 3:30 pm

Registration: Physician $150 CAD; Resident $100 CAD (lunch included)

Category	Abstract/Topic Title	Presenter	Time
Registration & Breakfast Networking Session			9:00-10:00
Substance Use	Event-based surveillance to understand illicit drug use	Dr. Shaun Hosein	10:00-11:00
	Communicating Illicit Drug-Related Harms	Dr. Jane Buxton
	Opioids as a Public Health Priority	Dr. Brian Emerson
	15 Minutes of Discussion
Innovation	Using Digital Media to Respond to an Outbreak of Syphilis in the Winnipeg Health Region	Dr. Joss Reimer	11:05-12:05
	Open System Theory Analysis & Implementation Science Analysis to Develop Options for Improving Adoption of a Member-Based Organization's Quality Indicators	Dr. Maura Ricketts
	Health Promotion Leadership and Practice: Intuition or Knowledge-based?	Dr. Richard Lessard
	15 Minutes of Discussion
Lunch (12:05-12:45)
Environmental Health	A "Meta-Tool" for evaluating city plans from a public health perspective	Dr. Jasmine Hasselback	12:45-1:25
	Is Annoyance Our Issue?: The Public Health Perspective on Wind Turbines	Dr. Arlene King
	10 Minutes Discussion
Public Health Education and Training	Development of Entrustable Professional Activities for Public Health and Preventive Medicine specialty training	Dr. Kieran Moore & Dr. Brent Moloughney	1:30-2:10
	Development of a new MPH at McMaster: will it meet Royal College and practice expectations?	Dr. Fran Scott
	10 Minutes of Discussion
Break 2:10-2:30
Complex Public Health Issues	Complex public health problems and syndemics: how can these theories guide our practice?	Dr. Odette Laplante & Dr. Yv Bonnier-Viger	2:30-3:30
	30 Minutes of Discussion

*Event timing subject to change.

PHPC CPD 2015