

Interior Health
Every person matters

Chief Medical Health Officer Southern Interior of British Columbia

Interior Health is seeking a Chief Medical Health Officer (CMHO) to join an amazing team. Located in Kelowna, British Columbia this position fulfills the role of Chief of Medical and Population Health services for the Southern Interior Health Region of BC.

Reporting to the President and CEO, and jointly accountable to the Provincial Medical Health Officer, the CMHO is responsible for leading public health, health promotion and prevention and health protection in addition to overseeing the work of Interior Health's Medical Health Officers. The CMHO holds overall accountability for compliance with a variety of Public Health Acts and Regulations, including those addressed by the Medical Health Officers and those under the leadership of the Senior Executive Team.

The ideal candidate will have a medical degree with full licensure (or proven eligibility for same) in the Province of British Columbia and Fellowship in Public Health and Preventive Medicine from the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada along with a minimum of fifteen years Public Health experience in progressively senior leadership roles within an integrated health system environment.

For more details about this position...

[Click Here
To Apply Now](#)

Interior Health
Every person matters

Apply Today!
Jobs.InteriorHealth.ca