BC's Top Employers MEDICAL HEALTH OFFICER Thompson Cariboo

Love where you live, work and play!

Located in the beautiful Southern Interior of BC, the Thompson Cariboo region of Interior Health serves a population of approximately 185,000. This amazing region is made up of communities such as Kamloops, Williams Lake, 100 Mile House, Lillooet, Merritt and many other breathtaking communities.

With both regional and geographic responsibilities this position will support the Thompson Cariboo region and the worksite location may be located in Kamloops or Kelowna. Medical Health Officers (MHOs) are responsible for assessing, monitoring, and reporting on the health status of persons living in the Interior Health region. They are also responsible for administering various BC statutes and regulations relevant to protecting the health of the population. MHOs provide strategic and tactical support to senior leadership in the development, planning, implementation and evaluation of public health programs both regionally and within each of our local health areas. They provide clinical consultation and advice to health professionals in both acute and community settings, and work collaboratively with internal and external stakeholders to support healthy public policy.

Qualifications:

- A Medical Degree with current (or eligible for) full registration and licensure to practice medicine from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of BC.
- Fellowship in Public Health and Preventive Medicine from the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.
- Master's degree in Public Health, Health Sciences or equivalent.
- Five years of experience in senior medical administrative or public health leadership roles.
- BC Driver's License for travel as required within our geographically distributed communities.
